The Story of Jesabel

Jezebel is a prominent figure in the Old Testament, known for her role as the wife of King Ahab of Israel and her influence in promoting the worship of Baal, a Canaanite deity. Her story is primarily found in the books of 1 Kings and 2 Kings. Here’s a brief overview of her story and the associated scriptures:

Jezebel's Story

- Marriage to Ahab: Jezebel, a Phoenician princess, marries King Ahab of Israel, leading to the introduction of Baal worship in Israel (1 Kings 16:31).

- Conflict with Elijah: Jezebel's promotion of Baal worship brings her into conflict with the prophet Elijah, who challenges the prophets of Baal on Mount Carmel (1 Kings 18).

- Naboth's Vineyard: Jezebel orchestrates the false accusation and execution of Naboth to seize his vineyard for Ahab (1 Kings 21).

- Death: Jezebel meets a gruesome end, as prophesied by Elijah, when she is thrown from a window and eaten by dogs (2 Kings 9:30-37).
